How many of these fruits and vegetables do you think grow in Britain? Circle all of the ones which you think might grow in this country.

Share your answers with a partner—did you both think the same?

How do we make sure that plants which need a warm environment can grow properly in Britain?

Harvest!

We have learned that Christians use Harvest as a time to be thankful for all the good things in their lives. What are you thankful for? Fill this mind map with your ideas—you could write, draw or both!

Is there a particular person you are thankful for? Write a short letter to them to say thank you for who they are or what they do.
