

Message from Mrs Eadie 20th April (WK5)

Hello everybody,

I hope you had a lovely weekend and managed to get lots of sunshine and fresh air! I do love springtime when everything is so fresh and new.

One of my very favourite videos on youtube is of a mother hen hatching her little, fluffy, yellow chicks, to the beautiful song 'What a Wonderful World' by an awesome jazz singer called Louis Armstrong. It never ceases to amaze me how wonderful nature is and this brilliant song just seems to encapsulate all that is good about our world. If you would like to watch it (I know many of you have already seen it!) then here is the link. <https://youtu.be/k3N5vtauDQU>

I hope you managed to listen to some of the songs in week 4 especially the beautiful song on Tuesday with the signing video. I know some of you did and it looked brilliant! If you didn't manage to do that it's not too late. You can access all the songs right back to week one!!

This week I have chosen the following as my favourite songs of the week. I would love to hear from you which are yours!

Move-it Monday's song is one that you will all be familiar with. How about teaching everyone in your household this great way to start the day!

Thinking Thursday's fabulous fun song is jam packed with ideas to help you with your writing! It's full of sentence starters, adverbs and words to use instead of said! It is brilliant!

Fun Friday Dang-A-Rang-A-Dang Do! Gosh, this song is hilarious! Just nonsense words sung at such a pace that will challenge the most able singers. Give it a go! I challenge you to learn it!!

Family Saturday A super song that let's your imagination take you to the life of a minibeast!. If you were a minibeast what would you choose to be?

Faith-filled Sunday's song is called 'Always making things' and is a lovely praise song about creation.

Last week I promised you a wordsearch activity all around the musical terms used in last week's bonus song Music Italiano

Here it is!

Word Search Music Italiano.html

If you have time I can highly recommend looking at the activity sheets that come with each song. They all have a 'Challenge', 'Talk about', 'Share it' and 'Did you Know?' activity. They also have a quote on each sheet, some inspirational, and some just profound.

My favourite quote this week:- (very appropriate at the moment!)

"YOU CAN'T USE UP CREATIVITY. THE MORE YOU USE, THE MORE YOU HAVE." Maya Angelou

LOVEMUSIC TRUST MUSIC LESSONS

MUSIC lessons for KS1 and KS2 have once again this week been put together by the Love Music Trust.

KS1 - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fwgbcgIXRSY>

This short lesson is based on the song Tiny Caterpillar on a leaf and is looking at Pulse and Rhythm

KS2 - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ib4v4dmLv10>

This week's lesson is based on Peter and the Wolf

I hope you enjoy your music lessons this week. Have a lovely time at home and don't forget to let me know how you're getting on. I'd love to see and hear some of your wonderful singing and musical activities. I hope the sun continues to shine and don't forget to sing every day.

With my best wishes from

Mrs Eadie
