

Draw human and physical features that you see on your route to school

Use your senses to describe your route to school

Draw your route to school. Include things that you see on the way—such as houses, trees, shops etc.

Write and draw things that you see, smell, touch and hear on your way.