

Time, Cause and Effect Conjunctions

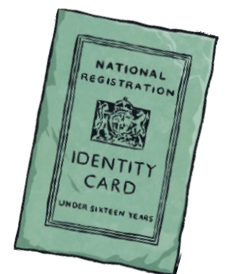

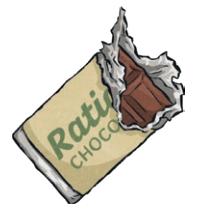

The following sentences are taken from the Twinkl Originals story 'Code-Cracking for Beginners'.

Can you match the two halves of each sentence with the correct time conjunction?

He saw the waving arms	before	he pinpointed their owner.
Dad told me that I'm the man of the house	when	he's away.
His eyebrows sprang to attention	after	he saw the time.
Lily cried out in fear	while	Sam appeared to rescue her.
Duncan pushed and prodded the helpless Sam	until	he had shoved him to the ground.

Underline the causal conjunction in each sentence.

1. Wardens barked orders and pointed instructions at the hordes but few people paid any attention.
2. Although he'd only just turned eleven, he was already several inches taller than her.
3. They now survived on what scraps of food they could scavenge and the goodwill of strangers, even though it was an offence to feed them.
4. Despite all this, Sam knew that these dogs were the lucky ones – they were still alive.

Time, Cause and Effect Conjunctions Answers

Can you match the two halves of each sentence with the correct time conjunction?

Underline the causal conjunction in each sentence.

1. Wardens barked orders and pointed instructions at the hordes but few people paid any attention.
2. Although he'd only just turned eleven, he was already several inches taller than her.
3. They now survived on what scraps of food they could scavenge and the goodwill of strangers, even though it was an offence to feed them.
4. Despite all this, Sam knew that these dogs were the lucky ones – they were still alive.

Time, Cause and Effect Conjunctions

The following sentences are taken from the Twinkl Originals story 'Code-Cracking for Beginners'.

Underline the time conjunction in each sentence.

1. He saw the waving arms before he pinpointed their owner.
2. Dad told me that I'm the man of the house while he's away.
3. When he saw the time, his eyebrows sprang to attention.
4. Lily cried out in fear until Sam appeared to rescue her.
5. Duncan pushed and prodded the helpless Sam after he had shoved him to the ground.

Write a sentence using each of these time conjunctions.

after

since before

when

Underline the causal conjunction in each sentence.

1. Wardens barked orders and pointed instructions at the hordes but few people paid any attention.
2. Although he'd only just turned eleven, he was already several inches taller than her.
3. They now survived on what scraps of food they could scavenge and the goodwill of strangers, even though it was an offence to feed them.
4. Despite all this, Sam knew that these dogs were the lucky ones – they were still alive.

Write a sentence using each of these causal conjunctions.

although

because

as if

Time, Cause and Effect Conjunctions Answers

Underline the time conjunction in each sentence.

1. He saw the waving arms before he pinpointed their owner.
2. Dad told me that I'm the man of the house while he's away.
3. When he saw the time, his eyebrows sprang to attention.
4. Lily cried out in fear until Sam appeared to rescue her.
5. Duncan pushed and prodded the helpless Sam after he had shoved him to the ground.

Underline the causal conjunction in each sentence.

1. Wardens barked orders and pointed instructions at the hordes but few people paid any attention.
2. Although he'd only just turned eleven, he was already several inches taller than her.
3. They now survived on what scraps of food they could scavenge and the goodwill of strangers, even though it was an offence to feed them.
4. Despite all this, Sam knew that these dogs were the lucky ones – they were still alive.