

Write Pablo a post card! Draw a picture of your favourite food and tell him where it comes from. You can use the postcard template in the Home Activity leaflet or make your own one from paper or card.	Pablo banana is super cool Pablo banana is nobody's fool He's one of a kind, a caring fruit He wears a waxy yellow suit Hear the farmers shout and rave What a difference it has made Now our bananas are Fairtrade Hip hip hooray! Sing the Pablo song to the tune of 'The Wheels on the Bus.' Make up actions.	Have a Fairtrade banana as a snack. For an extra challenge, help an adult to make some Fairtrade banana bread.
Colombia is hot and sunny. What is the weather like where you live? Keep a weather diary from Monday to Friday. Every morning, look out of the window and draw a picture of the weather. Is it sunny, rainy or cloudy? At the end of the week, look at your pictures. Did the weather change this week? Did it stay the same?	 The logo features a yellow banana character with a face, wearing a red and blue superhero cape, set against a blue starburst background. The text 'PABLO' is written in large pink letters above the character, and 'THE SUPER-BANANA' is written in pink letters below the character.	Pablo is a Super Banana! Make your own Super Banana cape or Super Banana mask. Show us your amazing costume by emailing schools@fairtrade.org.uk or tag us on Twitter at @FairtradeUKEd
When bananas grow they are the colour green. Go for a walk for an adult and see how many green things you can spot.	Bananas are sold in supermarkets in the United Kingdom. Set up a shop in your house. Make a price list and labels for the items in your shop. Ask an adult to help you.	Read the Pablo story flash cards with an adult. Complete the activities at the bottom of each page if you haven't done them already.
