2ND DECEMBER 2019

WEEK EVENTS

Dear Parent / Carer,

Many thanks to all parents who attended the PTA Christmas Fair with their children on Friday at the Victory Hall. The PTA put in a huge amount of organisation to ensure the hall looked amazing and very festive. The school choir sang beautifully and got us all in the Christmas spirit as they did previously at the Christmas Tree Festival last Thursday. Great thanks goes to Mrs Eadie for all her work preparing the children. Our choir is one of the most special aspects of our school. Totals are still being counted and we will let you know the final sum raised in due course. Thank you so much for your support at a time when school budgets are tighter than ever.

Also last week the PTA took a series of photos which will form our very first PTA school calendar. The sneak preview of photos I have seen look very impressive and I am sure parents will be delighted with the result.

As December begins so does the cold snap. Please can all parents ensure that children have suitable clothing during these cold days leading up to Christmas. Could parents also check if children's asthma inhalers are up to date so that we can ensure correct medication within school should children need this in the colder conditions.

This week we look forward to the Infant and Junior pantomimes. Junior classes will visit the New Vic Theatre tomorrow to see the Prince and the Pauper. Infant classes will enjoy a visiting production of Jack and the Beanstalk. As with all school trips we hope the children enjoy themselves and conduct themselves appropriately.
